

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Aerospace Components Manufacturers (AC) Group
Welcomes the Company into Membership

Durham, Connecticut – October 2017 – Technical Manufacturing Corporation, a leading supplier of contract electronics manufacturing services to the aerospace and defense industry for mission-critical, high-reliability and harsh environment applications where reliability and continued performance is critical, announced this month that it has joined the Aerospace Components Manufacturers (ACM) industry trade group. The ACM is a non-profit regional network of over 115 independent companies based in Connecticut and southwestern Massachusetts who are committed to providing aerospace and defense customers with aerospace grade components of unsurpassed quality, competitive prices and on-time delivery. Membership in the ACM provides companies with the opportunity to collaborate in an effort to advance continuous improvement based initiatives such as lean manufacturing, employee training, group purchasing and other benefits. Member companies are also able to exhibit their products and services in The World's Aerospace Alley!® annual tradeshow, which takes place each fall at the Connecticut Convention Center.
